

South Carolina Convention.

Charleston, S. C., Dec. 21.

The Convention met at noon.

R. Barnwell Rhett, chairman of the Committee on Adress to the Southern States, read an able paper reviewing the up-to-date facts of the war, and the Southern States, and the following resolution was adopted:

The Convention refused to use the address until finally adopted.

The following was offered yesterday in the Convention by Durkin, that the government appoint custom officers for the Southern states, unless the president and his cabinet are willing to discharge their duties.

Brown offered a motion that the Convention be collected at the existing rates, the collector appealing collectors, as a consequence the present postal arrangements will others are made.

Mr. Hutton offered a substitute that all collectors of the mail office under the United States government be appointed under the government of this State; also adopting the post and revenue laws of the United States, excepting the money to be collected by the collectors of the mail, and the amount of money to be collected by the collector of the mail office under the government of the United States, excepting the money to be collected by the collector of the mail office under the government of the United States, excepting the money to be deposited in the Bank of the State of Carolina, subject to the order of the Assembly; further, that said collectors will possess and control all of the United States property for the disposal of the Assembly, who will receive the same on the final settlement with the United States.

Mr. Durkin offered a clause to Mr. Durkin's motion, that collectors levy duties at half the rate of the state tariff.

From Charleston.

Charleston, Dec. 21.

Mr. Cushing arrived last night and remained five hours, when he left for Washington. There are no visitors to his mission.

The legislature to-day passed the laws of incorporation to the Foreign Relations Committee. Also appointed committee on the style of State flag.

It is rumored that the Convention went into session to consider postal and custom matters.

Springfield, Mass., Dec. 19.

A special election for Mayor took place in this city to-day. Stephen C. Bards (Democrat) was elected by 90 majority over D. L. Harris (Republican). The vote is 100 larger than that cast at the Presidential election. Much excitement prevailed while the election was progressing.

St. Louis, Dec. 21.

Mr. Bates and the Cabinet.—The Democrat of this morning announces by authority, that Mr. Lincoln offered Edward Bates a seat in his Cabinet, and that the latter will accept a position—probably that of Secretary of the Interior.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 20.

Thurlow Weed, Judge Seward and J. H. Van Allen, of New York, arrived here from the east in time to meet the morning train. Weed was received with Mr. Lincoln, and a full 3 hours.

He has been a prominent man, which was the subject of comment discussions. It is to be hoped that the subject will be left to the President's discretion.

It is my belief that Mr. Fox and Mr. Lincoln will easily be Secretary of State, Mr. Bates of War, Mr. Seward of Foreign Affairs, and Mr. Lincoln of the Treasury.

It is reported that the election was decided in favor of the Republicans.
